In the actual situation with the COVID-19 circumstances of a pandemic situation and the absolute need to follow strict protective actions and official instructions by the authorities, knowing that national and international entrants, racers, teams, visitors and guests face ongoing health concerns, this decision was made. We have seen an impressive lists of full fields for participation for this year in all areas of the classic- and motorfestival and many visitors have ordered their presale tickets already.

The features for the postponed Classic Days in 2021 will be the same. Decorated paddocks, mono-posti-racers, the prewar Bentleys on track, the demonstration track of the „racing legends“, the international Concours d´Elegance – meeting and autograph lessons with the famous and legendary drivers from the past and many interesting offers and displays from the large number of partners of the Classic Days.
